

Claudia Prather—Bio

Claudia Prather was born and raised in a small community called Parkers Chapel, which is about 5 miles outside the city limits of El Dorado, AR. She graduated from Parkers Chapel High School in 1986. After several years had passed and various jobs held, she decided to continue her education. So in 1996, she graduated with honors from South Arkansas Community College (better known as SACC) with an Associate of Arts Degree. Two years later in 1998, Claudia graduated from Louisiana Tech University with a Bachelor's degree in Finance. Then in 2011, she completed her second Bachelor's degree from Louisiana Tech and it is in Accounting.

Claudia joined Desk and Derrick in 2001, while employed with Murphy Oil Corporation. She married Dr. Kenneth Prather in March 2008 and in November 2008 she began her own Medical Billing Company. Since the business grew at such a fast pace, she left Murphy Oil in 2009 in order to focus on her business.

Claudia has two sons, Ray, (31), and Kyle (23)—and Kyle is currently away at boot camp with the Army. And 1 daughter, Aren (28). Two beautiful granddaughters—LoraLai (5) and AvaLeigh (2 ½). A four legged little girl named Abey, who is a Norwich Terrier.

Claudia also considers herself MeMe to 3 little boys, Tanner (11), Braxton (9), and Sawyer (5), who also belong to her friend and neighbor, Jana Hazelwood.

She is a member of North West Baptist Church and also serves on the Turning Point Board of Directors. She enjoys reading, cross stitching, and spending time with friends and family.
